

WHOOPIING COUGH

Is not a trifling disease. With the cough spasms, straining of the chest and stomach, there is always a loss of strength and flesh that ordinary food cannot restore.

Scott's Emulsion heals the inflamed bronchial tubes, relieves the cough and nourishes the child. It is the food-medicine par excellence in this disease.

ing officer and to the honor connected with having become worthy of deserving the jewel. It was accepted in a pleasing speech by Past High Priest Stevens.

The 12th annual convocation of the Grand Chapter R. A. M., will be held in Hartford on Tuesday, May 10, 1910, and the three first officers of the chapter will attend.

COUNTY MEDICAL SOCIETY MEETS AT NEW LONDON.

Dr. P. J. Cassidy Chosen President for Ensuing Year.

The New London County Medical association met in New London on Thursday morning for its 11th annual meeting. The meeting was held in the parlors of the Crocker house. Dr. C. H. Jennings of Jewett City presided, with about 25 present.

Dr. Robert R. Agnew was admitted to membership in the association. Dr. Agnew had been an interne at Backus hospital for the past year and has recently settled in Jewett City.

Officers for the year 1910 were elected as follows: President, Dr. P. J. Cassidy of Norwich; vice president, Dr. E. C. Chipman of New London; secretary and treasurer, Dr. E. Oliver Winship of New London; delegate to State society, Dr. L. F. LaPlante of Norwich; censor, Dr. Rush W. Kimball of Norwich; county reporter, Dr. E. J. Brophy of Norwich.

Dr. Francis N. Brame of New London was elected a censor to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. L. S. Paddock of Norwich. An obituary for Dr. L. S. Paddock of Norwich was read by Dr. Patrick Cassidy of Norwich, and Dr. W. K. Tingler read an obituary on Dr. George R. Harris.

At 1 o'clock dinner was served in the spacious dining room of the Crocker house. Presiding at the dinner as guests were Dr. J. W. Felty of Hartford and Dr. K. M. Geniston of Middletown.

At the afternoon session, which convened at 2:15 o'clock, the reports of the censors, county reporter, committee on public health and special committees were read. This was followed by the reading of the annual dissertations, Fallacies of Heredity by Dr. Harry M. Lee and Intestinal Obstruction by Dr. Daniel Salyards. The reading of each of these papers were followed by general discussion.

RED MEN VISITATION.

New London Degree Team Did Some Fine Work Before Tecumseh Tribe in This City.

Accompanied by a delegation of members, the degree team of Nonomantic tribe, No. 42, of New London, trailed to the hunting grounds of the Tecumseh tribe, No. 43, where it worked the adoption of warriors and chief's degrees on a class of seven pale-faces for Tecumseh tribe, No. 43. The council fire was kindled at 7 o'clock. After transacting business the team of Nonomantic tribe took the floor for the exemplification of the degrees.

On the team were most of the men who made up the championship team which participated in the contest in Norwich on Washington's birthday, 1907, when it captured first honors. The members were on their mettle Wednesday night and the work elicited much applause from the spectators, among whom were many Red Men from this section of the state.

After the work, refreshments were served, followed by remarks by several of the visitors. The New London Red Men left Norwich on the 10:45 trolley.

AGREEMENT IS EXPECTED.

Weavers' Committee Meets Manager Henault, and It is Probable That They Will Return on Monday.

Although there was no change manifested in the position of the striking weavers of the Reliance Worst Co. and although there is nothing definite, it is stated that the chances are that the weavers will be back at work next Monday morning. Manager Philip Henault and a committee from the strikers had a conference about 11 o'clock Thursday morning, and another is scheduled for this forenoon.

It is believed that an agreement satisfactory to both sides can be reached. The weavers have been out since Tuesday noon, but the rest of the factory is running as usual.

Wants Foreclosure of Mortgage.

Property owned by Benjamin F. Bean in the town of Old Lyme has been attached in the sum of $2,000 by John A. Wolf of Old Lyme in a suit for foreclosure of a mortgage. The case is returnable before the superior court in May. Bean has gone to parts unknown. The plaintiff claims foreclosure of said mortgage and possession of mortgaged premises.

Keep Your Bath Room Spotlessly Clean with Gold Dust

Soap will not do the work properly because soap only cleans the surface—it does not dig deep after germs and hidden impurities like GOLD DUST—the greatest of all sanitary cleansers.

To keep bath tub and lavatory shiny-white and inviting—To keep metal pipes, fixtures and taps brightly burnished—To purify closet bowl—To keep tiling and woodwork spotless and beautiful—

Simply add a heaping teaspoonful of GOLD DUST to a pail of water. You will be surprised at the ease with which it does the work. GOLD DUST sterilizes as well as cleans—and saves you one-half the labor.
